MRS. DONALD JOHN EASTON
the former Miss Deborah Faye Netherland

Vows Exchanged

Vows were spoken on Saturday, May 1, uniting Miss Deborah Faye Netherland, formerly of Appomattox, and Mr. Donald John Easton, in marriage at Cosby Memorial Baptist Church in Richmond. The Rev. Richard L. Horton officiated, using a ceremony especially written for the service.

The service was complemented by the organist, Mrs. Brenda Fauber, playing a medly of traditional wedding selections, with the soloist, Mrs. Betty Coleman, of Concord, singing "The Lord's Prayer".

Miss Denise Kaye Netland served as maid of honor and Miss Donna Gaye Netherland and Mrs. Jo Ann Tibbs were bridesmaids. Mr. Douglas O. Powell was best man and ushers were Messrs. John D. Netherland and Carlisle Leggett. The flower girl was Miss Tammy Taylor and ring bearer was Master Robert G. Netherland, III. Mrs. Cheryl Powell directed the wedding.

The bride's gown was designed with tiers of chantilly lace over taffeta with a long chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a cap of lace and pearls. Red sweetheart roses, baby's breath, and white carnations were encircled in a nosegay surrounded by chantilly lace with satin streamers.

The maid of honor and the bridesmaids wore long dresses of ice blue with wide brim hats, and each carried a nosegay of colorful summer flowers with baby's breath.

Mrs. Easton is a 1974 graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed at McGuire Clinic in Richmond. Mr. Easton attends John Tyler Community College and is employed by Safeway Stores.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Richmond.
